HEARINGS – ALLEGED CRAFT VIOLATIONS

MINUTES

Present: Sandra McKinley, Sherri Smith, Matt Porkola, Betsy Meyers

John Beard did not show up.
Richard Webster did not show up.
Terry Harms – Violations of SAU III, SAU II 2.
We agree he agrees that he was selling work that he was not screened for. He's showing jewelry that he contends he does make himself. The Bead craft displayed that he wasn't screened for.
The brass earring – we agree he made. The beaded & knotted necklaces. ~~were made by the artist.~~ ~~were made by him~~. He knots between beads & he did show receipts for the cord.
~~We are not ready to determine whether or not the small sterling cast earrings were made by the Terry. He did not bring the sterling pendants that were photographed & the photo was not clear enough to determine whether or not he made the work.~~

He's taking commercial pieces & altering them. He claims the changes he makes are enough according to State law. The question is Originality according to who is the creator.

We question the originality of his designs. He is willing to take the penalty of SAV IV Sec II. He alters existing commercial designs. He takes a commercial wax & alters it. He did not originally create the waxes. We find that he is in violation of SAV IV Sec. II.

Present: Sandra McGinley, Sherri Smith, Betsy Meyer Mark Ankeles, Matt Pokola

Harry Mason, Kathryn Strong - SAV III, SAV II

Kathryn - SAV II

NOTE: Kathryn & Harry have a company together. The co. is under Harry's name. Each has a separate license. Each makes their own jewelry. Harry has ~~a~~ 3 workers who produce part of the work sold to stores, etc. However, all of the work that Harry sells as a street artist is produced by him - according to his remarks about his work.

FINDINGS: Harry: SAV III - not enough evidence to support this as any violation.

② Kathryn & Harry ~~do~~ do their own work - We find that the actual work is not in violation and we recommend that they apply as a family unit.

WEEKEND MONITORING:

- 1. The committee - will in future review beadstring criteria again.

Findings on:

- 2. - Sherry Tatum - demonstrated her work. ~~There was a lack of evidence to~~

Sherry bends the bows, glues the pieces, ~~&~~ but doesn't cut the mylar. - ~~was~~ said it was cut by Dennis in New Mexico. Committee feels they can't deny certification based on lack of evidence.

Mat + I went out to monitor street artists on Sat. 9. Took photo of John Struble table. He's selling T-shirts with only San Francisco. He was screened for textile printing and several other crafts. We were wondering if there was a way to get John in here for a re-screening. His work is bare minimum. Were interested in coming up with more t-shirt criteria.

Questions about photo buttons + magnets. One artist takes his own photos and makes the buttons + magnets. Another just has words on his. We feel they don't fit into the program.

Our earring criteria is 3 components. Manufacturers are producing an earwire that has a coil + a bead attached making it very easy for artists to slip by on criteria.

Suggested that we set up a criteria meeting to redo earwire, t-shirts, buttons.

Mat + Betsy out sat. Mark + hopefully Sandy Sun.

Monitoring — calling Police on non street artists selling. one person sells on Jefferson & Leavenworth cloisonné. His license is expired, and he still sells. New Violation code - ex: Mitch Paradise we gave him warning & so now he can be suspended for 2 wks. if caught again.

Terry Harms — was he in violation - selling under suspension. He should have sent in the sheet & he didn't, the lottery told him not to sell

Mark - can we add to the program where we validate that we give warnings. - a receipt.

We have to give new code violations to anyone ~~not~~ selling work that doesn't meet criteria.

~~Terry Harms~~ — previous violation code SAV III SAV IV and Sec. 2404, Salesperson: Mr. Harms didn't send back form. Lottery Committee & police notified that he should not sell. The form to be sent in admitted violation or not he was guilty.

Terry Harms - Kit Foster. woman came to plaza Kit asked for license & the woman said she didn't have a license but her friend did - Terry. Kit said we have inspectors & Terry said oh yeah Howard. Terry left. (to park?) and didn't return til 2 pm. ~~Sheila~~ helped Terry set up work. Kit saw woman & Terry put work out & saw her make sales.

The alleged work was made or ~~not~~ made by Terry. Howard brought in silk beads, & other necklace that were loaned by a wholesaler.

The beads in photo #4, #2 appear to be the same as ~~photo~~ the manufactured beads, brought in by Howard.

New evidence: Howard received a phone call saying it's impossible for Harry & Kathryn to make that much work & also sell on the street.

Tom Schober filed original complaint he worked for Harry & was fired & he tried to Sabotage Harry. He was fired for attitude problems

1. display of items not of the artist's own creation - we feel there is lack of evidence.
2. Salesperson selling for artist. That situation no longer applies they are now a family unit.

We feel we need to dismiss all charges.

Kathryn Strong. Display of items not of the artists creation. Our finding is that we considers her a family unit so she has every right to sell the work. All charges (should be.) dropped.

MINUTES OF STUDIO VISIT — ADVISORY COMMITTEE OF STREET ARTISTS & CRAFTSMEN EXAMINERS

10/30/84

Advisory Committee of the Street Artists Program
Studio Visit. Matt Porkola, Sherri Smith → Present.
Betsy Meyers — 6 p.m.
to Eunice & Jesse Rodriquez

The studio visit occurred as a result of discussion at a criteria meeting, 10/23/84. The topic of the criteria hearing: "Items of fossil beads and glass beads." Beaded necklaces are being sold by Street Artists that are made of these items. These items are in question as to whether or not they meet criteria.

The fossil beads are not restrung. They are purchased in single strands that are prestrung and knotted together. A single strand can be worn as purchased from wholesaler.

DOCUMENTS DEPT.
NOV 13 1984
SAN FRANCISCO PUBLIC LIBRARY

They are sold in the form of multi-strands twisted together and joined w/a purchased loop fastener/clasp. One point brought up at the criteria meeting was that the strands of fossil beads were dyed. Eunice produced a strand of fossil beads. She claimed she dyed these beads for 45 minutes in black Rit dye and nothing happened. The beads are made of stone. She submitted the beads for the files.

The glass beads in question are purchased prestrung in different colors. The ends of the strings are not tied together. They cannot be worn as purchased. Multi-strands are then measured & put together. The ends have purchased metal caps and attached to purchased clasps. Eunice demonstrated this.

Jesse showed us his metal working studio. He also showed us his techniques used in stringing together loose beads.

The majority of the small glass bead strands are not displayed usually displayed in single strands. The fossil beads have been seen displayed in single strands so the customers can choose their own color combinations.

Further discussion of these items will take place at a future criteria meeting.

Betsy Meyers & Matt Porkola observations

many tables of beads with beads all the same - strung together. No design involved.
felt hats with only pleated hat bands.
we question the validity of these items in the program.

Mitchell Paradise again had a table full of comm. Moissonè, commercial pendants & earrings.
He was told to remove all commercially manufactured items from his table. He did not observe compliance.

Jefferson St.

Fernando Hechevaria and others were selling manufactured items we asked them to remove them from their table.

Manufactured pendants on chains & shells only on earwires.
Betty removed work from her table.
Woman friend of Peppers - appeared to have 2 tables on one she was selling manufactured jewelry & on the other she was selling kites.
One woman was set up who didn't have a license.

(THE COMMITTEE CLARIFIED THEIR CRITERIA AS FOLLOWS, FOR SUBMITTAL TO P&M COMMITTEE)

"Commercially manufactured buttons used as jewelry must be physically altered on the face of the button. For example; painting, carving, collaged; or it must have two or more integral parts, for example; additional buttons, beads, feathers, or metal parts attached to the face or the perimeter of the button; (excluding findings.)"

22) Adrian Ruyle*

Discussion: TOPIC: INBALACE OF CERTAIN CRAFTS.

A. The committee held a discussion noting the over abundance of beaders resulting in an inbalance of certain crafts in the program.

Sherry Miller moved to ask the city attourney for an opinion as to wheather the arts commission has the authority to establish quotas in Crafts categories. The motion was seconded by Matt Porkola and unanimously approved by the committee.

V REQUESTS BY APPLICANTS FOR PRIORITY IN SCREENING

A. Linda Jennings - applied July 12, 1983; was sent notice of screening on January 3, 1986, and did not reply. Ms. Jennings contacted office on September 29, 1986 and said she had been out of the country.

B. Michael Tanner - applied August 30, 1982; was sent notice of screening on September 24, 1984, and did not reply. Mr. Tanner contacted the office on September 12, 1986 and furnished a new address; he wrote on September 17th that his notification had not been forwarded to him.

C. Signe Spicer - applied June 17, 1985. Mrs. Spicer wrote to the office on August 4, 1986 that she had failed to put her name on her husband's application, having felt that the application's term "family unit" automatically included her. (At the time of his application, the application did not direct the applicant to list all names of his/her family unit - as the application does now.)

Advisory Committee Meeting - Members present - Nat Pockele & Ed Kyte. Discussion on Findings of Studio Visit to Abel Padilla - Karlene Burkett.

Mary Isaacs discussed items for sale on the artists tables at the Cliff House including shells which had been only polished, and questioned whether these fell under criteria as written and requested clarification of criteria.

Statements by Board members point out that shells that have been only cleaned & polished do not meet criteria for lapidary/shellcraft which require "cutting, polishing and engraving." Mr. Padilla inquired who had written these requirements. Ms Isaacs explained that criteria had the force of law. It was explained that some of loose shells are the only items in question and did not meet criteria and could not be sold. Ms Burkett & Mr. Padilla agreed.

Silkscreen/Apparel Criteria -

Linda Stark presented suggestion for a separate category of "Decorated Apparel" rather than silkscreening, and ways of explaining design aspects, and proposed changes in law to set up quotas for numbers in each category and limits on numbers in family units. (See attached proposal)

Recording of designs - Arts Comm. cannot function as a defacto copyright office, Other legal options exist to deal with legal questions.

Silkscreen designs - ages submitted to board.
Handpainted - photographs may be submitted - office decision of which designs are allowable will be made at monthly screenings; but artist ~~no~~ does not have to be present.

Photographs of approved designs will be filed for cross-referencing to prevent theft of designs.

John Jacobs, a merchant, commented he has a problem with the artists but feels that merchants will not tolerate a situation where every other table is t-shirt. and feels quotas should be established. The board felt that quotas should not be necessary because a more thorough screening of designs will eliminate many of the problems

Resolved: Decorated apparel, whether it has been silkscreened, painted, or appliqued, or altered by other means, depends solely on its design to become a unique craft object. The board supports the basic intent of the Street Artists law that the handcrafted item be predominantly created or altered in form by the Street Artist of craftsman. To implement this intent. all designs shall be submitted to the Advisory Board for approval prior to sale. Silkscreened designs should be printed on fabric or paper. and sent to the office. Other techniques may be submitted by photograph. Designs will be filed for reference.

Designs may not be copied from commercial items or from other street artists. Designs must somehere include the artists legal, business, or studio name
